

FINAL TRANSNATIONAL MEETING OF THE ARCH PROJECT

On September 26-27, 2024, CulturePolis organised in Corfu, Greece the final meeting of the ARCH Erasmus+ Project.

The agenda included:

- The presentation of the final version of a mobile application for cultural heritage sites in Greece, Cyprus, Italy and Spain
- The presentation of the interactive educational game for elementary school children
- The presentation of the Guide to the application of modern game-based learning techniques in education
- Discussions on administrative and financial issues for the closure of the project.

THE ARCH PROJECT IN THE EUROPEAN HERITAGE DAYS

The ARCH project participated in the celebration of the European Heritage Days. This year's theme was entitled: "Tracing Routes, Networks, and Connections in Cultural Heritage."

CulturePolis, one of the partners of the ARCH project designed and implemented an interpretive walk for the project partners and the general public along the Cultural Route "Arts, Letters, and Politics in the Old Town of Corfu"

The aims of this activity were to:

- connect the narratives of the past and create new bonds in the present
- present the ARCH results to the general public

Bringing Cultural Heritage to the present Era. Unifying Past, Present and Future

